LUNA

The background of the image shows an outdoor restaurant terrace. In the foreground, several rectangular tables are set with white tablecloths, white plates, silverware, and glasses. Some tables have fresh oranges and lemons as centerpieces. The chairs are a mix of white and dark green. In the middle ground, there is a long wooden bar with a white countertop. Behind the bar, there are various kitchen items like blenders and coffee machines. The terrace is enclosed by a white railing with a diagonal pattern. In the background, there are trees, a white umbrella, and a view of a city with a church spire visible in the distance.

...but there is a special project that we hold most dear to our hearts. The one that is made to grow.
A place with a name.

We gained instant success with The Catch: a fun and relaxed robata izakaya. Within a month since opening The Catch became the top destination for sushi and sashimi in the Baltics.

Pilot project in Riga

When passion meets profession:

- Fully booked 2-3 times a day (with minimum advertising)
- We deliver exceptional taste with premium quality for an affordable price
- Individual approach only: we listen to the guest– and make it happen

A new approach to the concept of izakaya

Quality
comes first.

THE CATCH

THE CATCH

On our way to expand to Europe: The Catch is a product to compete with restaurants like ZUMA, RO KA and IZAKAYA .

We are in search for a great spot to start our European journey in Germany.

We are looking for:

- Top locations in top cities (Berlin, Hamburg, Munich)
- 150-250 m²
- 1st floor with terrace
- All formalities in order for establishing a restaurant
